Using the map to guide you, you can make your way through this continuous stretch of countryside from Shenfield Common in the north to Thorndon South.

Horseriders and cyclists are welcome to use the blue waymarked routes on the map, please stay only on these routes and remember these are multi user paths and care and consideration should be given to pedestrians.

Woodland Trust

Thorndon North and South are linked with Old Park which is owned and managed by the Woodland Trust. Wander through the restored parkland and imagine how it was in the 18th century.
