Broome Heath Scramble

Hosted by VC Baracchi

Marshal duties called me to the VC Baracchi Cyclo-cross on Sunday, 16 December, at a venue near Bungay. A brilliant day weather-wise but very cold.

Plomesgate had Jim, Jenny and Jack Hardwicke taking part, the latter being in the under 12 year old race, finishing 2nd; only 5 seconds behind the winner, Sean Dunlea. Jack really tried and Jenny did very well in the Under 14 category.

Being on the other side of the circuit, I couldn't observe the start of the Seniors race but am told there was a crash of some sort, which delayed our man Jim. But a couple of laps later he was flying, getting past various riders as can be seen in the photographs.

The event was won by Nathan Miller 53-12 (Multisports) with Shaun Aldous 2nd (Interbike).

Enjoyed the day out but would rather have been racing.

Ron Shoobridge

Our congratulations go the Hardwicke family riders. Unfortunately, no pictures of Jenny. Very heartening to see some young people showing interest and doing so well. Ed.

Committee Meeting reminder plus extras bits

1 – A reminder that the first Committee Meeting of 2008 is on Thursday, January 17th, at Evert and Annelie's which is: Aysgarth, Main Road, Martlesham, IP12 4SL, its just up the hill from the Chip shop.

2 - Trevor has been "promoted" to a full timekeeper and Bev Whelan has been recognized as an Assistant Timekeeper, so be nice to them.

3 - There may be some 'organized' training rides coming soon in the Woodbridge area, more details to follow when I have them.

4 - The CC Breckland Open 10 on New Years Day saw one competitor from Plomesgate CC. John Vidler burnt off some of his Xmas pud in 32:57. See full results here :-
